

Canstruction® 2009

Sponsors

Kiwanis Club of Bridgeport

Kiwanis Club of Fairfield

Kiwanis Club of Weston

American Institute of Architects-Connecticut Chapter

Connecticut Food Bank

Foodshare

Judges

Jennifer Caffrey - Technology Education Teacher, Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School

Beth Schult - 5th Grade Teacher, Doolittle Elementary School, Cheshire

Glen Barnhard - Architect from Fairfield CT, member of the Fairfield Kiwanis and AIA Connecticut

Board member

Team Projects

Juror's Favorite

"Stop Hunger in its Tracks"

Middlesex School of Darien with Huelster Design Studio, LLC, Westport

Jury Comments:

"This entry was given the top award due to its spectacular visual detail and use of nutritional components."

Best Use of Labels

“Sowing Our Own Secret Garden to Fight Hunger”

Bielefield Elementary School of Middletown with Bianco Giolitto Weston Architects, Middletown

Jury Comments:

“This entry showed the judges that label placement contributes greatly to the overall aesthetic design. Check out the bumble bees on the backside.”

Best Meal

"Turtles"

Gideon Welles School, Glastonbury with JCJ Architecture of Hartford & Pinnacle One, Hartford

Jury Comments:

"This entry had the best nutritional meal; it was well thought out from appetizer to dessert."

Structural Ingenuity

"Dozer"

Har-Bur Middle School, Burlington with Kaestle Boos, New Britain

Jury Comments:

" This entry is an outstanding example of using the cans to present a self-supporting structure within the competition rules. This entry is also visually stunning."

Honorable Mention - Most Creative

"We Come in Peas"

King Philip Middle School of West Hartford with EDM CT, West Hartford

Honorable Mention - Best Use of American Icon

"We CAN Sketch a Path to a Better Future"

King & Low-Heywood Thomas of Stamford with Perkins Eastman, Stamford

Honorable Mention - Most Exciting Story

"A Race to End Hunger"

Poquonock Elementary School of Windsor with Perkins & Will, Glastonbury

Honorable Mention - Cutest

"A Bear Hug in the Fight against Hunger"

South Elementary School of Windsor Locks with The S / L / A / M Collaborative, Glastonbury

