The performance of this Agreement by either party may be affected by force majeure (including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of war or other acts of enemies, government regulation, disaster, strikes, floods, civil disorder, curtailment of transportation facilities, or other emergency or event beyond the control of the parties), thus making it inadvisable, unsafe, illegal, or impossible to provide required accommodations and/or meeting facilities, hold the meeting, or travel to the meeting. In event of force majeure, either party to this Agreement may terminate the Agreement upon providing written notice to the other party without penalty or obligation. Such right of termination shall not be unreasonably exercised. In addition, AIA Connecticut reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to cancel this meeting. In that event, AIA Connecticut shall refund to you all registration fees that it has received from you for this meeting, but shall have no further obligation to you of any type, whether monetary or otherwise. Accordingly, AIA Connecticut shall in no event have any liability to you based on claims for indirect, special or consequential damages of any type whatsoever, and shall have no other obligation to you of any type except as expressly stated in the preceding sentence. AIA Connecticut reserves the right to limit Golf, Tennis or Croquet registrations for sponsors pending member interest and participation.
