

AIA Connecticut

FELLOWS MENTORING PROGRAM

Volunteer Mentor

Name: Jonathan Humble, FAIA, NCARB, LEED AP-BD+C
Position: Regional Director
Company: American Iron and Steel Institute
Town: West Hartford, CT
Email: Jhumble@steel.org (wk) or Feiron@att.net (hm)
Phone: 860-231-7520 (wk)

Jonathan has dedicated his work to enhance the architectural profession and advance the science and art of planning and building in private practice and working with a major industry association. Jonathan has also played a significant role in educating others about how codes and standards improve health, safety and welfare in the built environment and through the improvement of national model codes and standards, and with green, sustainable and high-performance programs. Jonathan regularly volunteers his skills, knowledge, leadership, expertise to the architectural, engineering, code and building communities.

Positions held:

- Principal architect, architectural project management and project designer.
- Board of director for not-for-profit organizations.
- Chair, member or special consultant to national model codes and standards development and adoption, and for green, sustainability, and resilience codes, standards and programs.
- Public speaking

Areas of expertise: (Alphabetical Order)

- Career goals, resume
- Communication skills
- Green, sustainability, energy, and resilient design
- Public speaking