The ART of BUILDING a FUTURE
What does an architect do?

Architects design buildings for clients.

An architect takes a client’s vision, dream, or need, and turns it into something real.

What makes architecture so unique is the architect’s final product is real!

This means an architect faces the challenge to blend design, history, theory, technology, art, and sciences, along with the dynamics of social studies, and humanities.
Architectural Linked Careers:

- Building Inspector
- Building Systems Engineer
- Campus Planner
- Carpenter
- City Planner
- Civil Engineer
- Construction Manager
- Developer
- Graphic Designer
- Interior Designer
- Landscape Architect
- Model Maker
- Museum Curator
- Professor
- Set Designer
- Structural Engineer
- Surveyor
YOU CAN BECOME AN ARCHITECT
Do you have...

- Curiosity
- Desire to build things
- Creativity
- Interest in design
- No fear of hard work

Start early!

- Talk to your guidance counselor
- Check out the admission requirements of several accredited schools
- Visit a few architecture firms

You must graduate from a National Architecture Accrediting Board (NAAB) School of Architecture.
How do I pursue a career in architecture?

Complete a 5-year Bachelor of Architecture degree from a NAAB college program

Complete both a 4-year Professional Bachelor and 2-year Master’s degree from a NAAB college program
Complete the 3-year Architectural Experience Program (AXP)

Complete Architectural Registration Examination (ARE)